

TREWIDLAND PRIMARY & PRESCHOOL

NEWSLETTER 8.11.2024

Dear Parents and Carers,

It has been a super first week back after the half term. As you know, we completed a parent survey regarding the colour of polo shirts. Thank you for all your feedback which is greatly appreciated. We will be moving to dark green polo shirts. Please note this is a phased introduction over this year with the expectation of dark green in September 2025. Every child, will be coming home with a dark green polo shirt today to help begin the transition. We expect to see a mixture of white and dark green during the year.

On the last Friday before half-term, we welcomed Reverend Mark Wade into school for his first assembly with everyone. The children welcomed him brilliantly and were completely engaged asking so many super questions. We look forward to seeing Rev Mark again soon and of course the Christingle in St Keyne Church in December. Please save the date - Monday 16th December.

In our sports assembly Mr Jones described the highs and lows of running the Cornish Marathon last Sunday and the main message of keeping going even when it is tough. He came 12th out of 350 runners in 3hrs 6mins and 57 sec. This inspired Class 2 to complete the mile challenge and many are now keen to represent the school in an inter school cross country event on the 15th November!

The focus in PE this half term is Gymnastics with balance a feature this week.

After school sports club had a team challenge which the pupils were successful in to give them a reward sport next week. Well done all!!

Next week, is national anti-bullying week which this year is centred around the theme of 'Choose Respect'. This links excellently to our rule of 'be respectful'. We will be discussing what this means and what it looks like. On Tuesday, we will be joining with the national 'Odd Socks Day'. Please can children come to school wearing odd socks! This links to celebrating how we are different and we celebrate our difference. Please see Dojo for the link to the parent survey. We look forward to hearing your views.

Have a lovely weekend.

Best wishes, Mrs Pipe, Executive Headteacher
