NEWSLETTER 07.03.2025

Dear Parents and Carers,

What a fantastic week! World Book Day on Thursday was incredible. There were so many hats – and different costumes. The school was awash with colour. Thank you to all of you for supporting this event. Reading – and reading for pleasure – is so important and is something we want to encourage. Picking up a book and being transported into a different world is a joy that will continue with our children throughout their life.

We also celebrated St Piran's Day on Wednesday. The children learnt all about the story of St Piran, who he was, how he arrived here and what he did. They then created fact files, learnt about the Cornish Coat of Arms and learnt some Cornish phrases too.

Looking forward to next week, Class 2 will be swimming with me and Miss Gaynor. Don't forget to collect your children from Dobwalls between 3pm and 3.30pm. I am really looking forward to it and see all the progress the children make throughout the week. Drawing and Sports club will still be on back at school. I (and Mr Jones on Thursday) will join the clubs on our return.

Don't forget Parents Evening for Class 2 will be on Wednesday 12th March. Sign up sheet is outside the classroom. We look forward to seeing as many of you as possible. Class 1's has been postponed until Wednesday 26th March due to staff absence. Further details to follow.

I hope you all have a lovely weekend.

With best wishes

Amanda Cummings
Head of School

Please could parents label their child's School jumper with their child's name. This would be very helpful. Thank you
