

Dear Parents and Carers,

Skol Gynsa Trewythelan (Hello Trewidland Primary in Cornish!)

Another Friday is upon us and today has been the day we've all gone on our whole school trip to The National Marine Aquarium in Plymouth. The school has been buzzing with excitement in the lead up to today and as I write I am filled with anticipation too. What an excellent thing to be able to do.

We have also had the Class 2 trip to the Royal County Showground for the Music Hubbub on Wednesday. This was an excellent opportunity for us to join with the children from Dobwalls and engage in some excellent music making. Then, the library has also paid us a visit this week to talk about the Summer Reading Challenge. This is available through all the local libraries and the children all seemed really enthused to hear about it. The Library will return later in the year to present certificates to all those who become involved in this project.

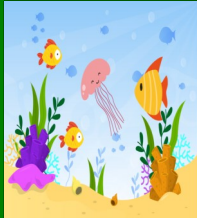

Looking forward to next week, Friday will see us hold our first 'Crazy Hair Day'. Children can come to school with a crazy hairstyle and give a £1 donation. The funds raised will be used to buy playground equipment for use at playtimes. I'm not too sure what to expect but really cannot wait to see what hairstyles appear on the day!

Till then, have a great weekend.
We'll see you next week.

All the best,

Mrs Amanda Cummings
